

RULE REVIEW

DIVISION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES

Pursuant to §207 of the State Administrative Procedure Act, the Division of Criminal Justice Services hereby gives notice that the Division has concluded its review of the following rules adopted in calendar year 1999.

I.D. number: CJS-52-98-00006

Description of subject matter: Accreditation program for public forensic laboratories.

Need for the rule: Executive Law §995-b(1) requires minimum standards and a program of accreditation for all forensic laboratories in New York State. This rule fulfilled that mandate.

Legal basis of the rule: Executive Law §995-b(1).

The rule is being continued without modification because it continues to provide minimum standards and a program of accreditation for forensic laboratories. A summary of this rule was published in the Rule Review section of the December 31, 2003 edition of the State Register. The Division did not receive any public comments regarding this rule.

I.D. number: CJS-49-98-00010

Description of subject matter: Elements of physical fitness screening.

Need for the rule: Executive Law §840(2) requires rules and regulations prescribing physical fitness requirements for eligibility of persons for provisional or permanent appointment in the competitive class of the civil service as municipal police officers. This rule fulfilled that mandate.

Legal basis of the rule: Executive Law §840(2).

The rule is being continued without modification because it continues to provide elements of physical fitness screening as required by Executive Law §840(2). A summary of this rule was published in the Rule Review section of the December 31, 2003 edition of the State Register. The Division did not receive any public comments regarding this rule.
