

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

Executive Order No. 113.98: Continuing the Suspension of Certain Provisions of Law.

WHEREAS, on September 11, 2001, I issued Executive Order No. 113 declaring a disaster emergency in the State of New York;

WHEREAS, Executive Law § 29-a authorizes the suspension, alteration and modification of statutes, local laws, ordinances, orders, rules or regulations, or parts thereof, if compliance with such provisions would prevent, hinder or delay action necessary to cope with a disaster emergency;

WHEREAS, beginning on September 11, 2001 and continuing, I issued a series of Executive Orders to help victims and their families, expedite rescue and recovery efforts and assist state agencies and local governments in responding to the disaster caused by the attack on World Trade Center;

WHEREAS, Executive Law § 29-a provides that no suspension shall be made for a period in excess of thirty days, provided, however, that upon reconsideration of all the relevant facts and circumstances, the suspension may be extended for additional periods not to exceed thirty days each;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE E. PATAKI, Governor of the State of New York, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of the State of New York, do hereby order that the suspension, alteration or modification of provisions of law ordered by Executive Orders Nos. 113.5, 113.31, 113.36-A, as modified by Executive Order Nos. 113.51, and 113.45 shall continue through July 21, 2005, and such suspensions, alterations or modifications shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after June 21, 2005.

FURTHER, I do hereby order that the suspension, alteration or modification of Sections 2401 and 2402 of the Surrogate's Court Procedure Act, as ordered by the fourth paragraph of Executive Order No. 113.24, dated September 24, 2001, shall continue through July 21, 2005, and such suspensions, alterations or modifications shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after June 21, 2005.

(L.S.) GIVEN under my hand and the Privy Seal of the State in the City of Albany, this twentieth day of June in the year two thousand five.

Executive Order No. 113.99: Temporary Suspension of Provisions Relating to Out-of-State Law Enforcement Officers Serving as Railroad Police Officers.

WHEREAS, on September 11, 2001, I issued Executive Order Number 113 declaring a disaster emergency in the State of New York;

WHEREAS, the attacks of September 11, 2001 have demonstrated that there are terrorists at home and abroad that seek to do us harm;

WHEREAS, no State has done more than New York since September 11, 2001 to ensure the safety and security of the people within its borders and its critical infrastructure;

WHEREAS, we must be vigilant in our efforts to protect against terrorist attacks;

WHEREAS, the States of Connecticut and New Jersey have agreed to deploy police officers from their states to provide increased security on commuter trains going to and from New York State;

WHEREAS, to fully utilize the police resources provided by our sister states, we must confer police officer powers on such officers while they are within the geographic jurisdiction of New York State;

WHEREAS, Railroad Law § 88 authorizes the Superintendent of State Police to appoint any person as a railroad police officer only under prescribed circumstances and subject to certain limitations;

WHEREAS, such circumstances and limitations should not be applied to sworn police officers from our sister states serving as railroad police officers and would prevent, hinder and delay action necessary to cope with the aftermath of the September 11, 2001 attacks and the heightened risk of terrorist attacks; and

WHEREAS, Executive Law § 29-a authorizes the suspension, alteration and modification of statutes, local laws, ordinances, orders, rules or regulations, or parts thereof, if compliance with such provisions would prevent, hinder or delay action necessary to cope with a disaster emergency;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE E. PATAKI, Governor of the State of New York, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of the State of New York, do hereby continue Executive Order Number 113, dated September 11, 2001, except that such Executive Order is amended by adding the following provisions:

FURTHER, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 29-a of Article 2-B of the Executive Law to temporarily suspend and modify specific provisions of any statute, local law, ordinance, order, rule or regulation, or parts thereof, of any agency during a State disaster emergency, if compliance with such provisions would prevent, hinder or delay action necessary to cope with the disaster, I hereby temporarily suspend and modify, for the period from the date of this Executive Order until further notice, the following laws for purposes of appointment of sworn police officers of the State of Connecticut or sworn police officers of any county or municipality in the State of Connecticut, or sworn police officers of the State of New Jersey or sworn police officers of any county or municipality in the State of New Jersey as Railroad Police:

Subdivision 1 of Section 88 of the Railroad Law, is suspended insofar as it requires the Superintendent of the New York State Police to appoint railroad police officers only upon the application of a corporation, express company, or steamboat company, and is modified to the extent necessary to include all rail facilities owned or operated by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey or its subsidiaries, the Metropolitan Transit Authority or its subsidiaries and New Jersey Transit or its subsidiaries;

Subdivisions 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15 and 16 of Section 88 of the Railroad Law; and Subdivision 17 of Section 88 of the Railroad Law, insofar as it relates to the filing requirements by the Superintendent of the New York State Police and the mailing of notice of suspension or revocation of appointments made pursuant to Section 88 of the Railroad Law and is modified so as to require the Superintendent of the New York State Police to mail notice of suspension or revocation of any such appointments to the Superintendent of the State Police of either New Jersey or Connecticut, whichever is appropriate.

Executive Order No. 139: Declaring a Disaster in the County of Washington and Contiguous Areas.

WHEREAS, beginning on July 2, 2005, the failure of Hadlock Dam, located at Hadlock Pond in the Town of Fort Ann, Washington County, has caused flooding and resulted in personal hardship, damage to residential and commercial properties and the agricultural community, as well as the disruption of vital public transportation and public safety systems in the County of Washington and contiguous areas, and;

WHEREAS, this event has resulted in personal hardships, stranded motorists and travelers, and continues to pose a threat to the public health and safety by causing significant damage to State Route 149, Hadlock Pond Road and Joe Green Road;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE E. PATAKI, Governor of the State of New York, do hereby find that a disaster has occurred for which the affected local governments are unable to respond adequately. Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Constitution of the State of New York and Section 28 of Article 2-B of the Executive Law, I hereby declare a State Disaster Emergency effective July 3, 2005, within the territorial boundary of the County of Washington and contiguous areas, and;

FURTHER, pursuant to Section 29 of Article 2-B of the Executive Law, I direct the implementation of the State Disaster Preparedness Plan and authorize, effective July 3, 2005, and continuing, The State Emergency Management Office, the Department of Health, the Department of Transportation, the State Police, the Division of Military and Naval Affairs, the Department of Environmental Conservation, the State Department of Correctional Services, the Public Service Commission, the Office of Fire Prevention and Control, the Department of Labor, the Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation and other State agencies as necessary, to take appropriate action to protect state property and to assist those affected local governments and individuals in responding to and recovering from this disaster, and to provide such other assistance as necessary to protect the public health and safety.

FURTHER, I have designated James W. Tuffey, Director of the State Emergency Management Office (SEMO) as the State Coordinating Officer for this event.
