PUBLIC NOTICE

Department of Agriculture and Markets

In the Matter of Considering a Petition Submitted by the New York State Summer Fruit Growers Association to enact a Research and Development Program (1 NYCRR Part 206) for Peaches/Nectarines grown in New York State pursuant to Article 25 of the Agriculture and Markets Law and 1 NYCRR Part 200

NOTICE OF REFERENDUM

TO: NEW YORK STATE PEACH/NECTARINE PRODUCERS WHO PRODUCED PEACHES/NECTARINES FOR ANY MARKET DURING THE 2004-2005 MARKETING SEASON:

Upon reading and considering the Hearing Officer's Report of Susan Weber, and upon the evidence and comments received in this proceeding, I hereby adopt the Comments, Conclusions and Recommendations of the Hearing Officer and find the existence of conditions referred to in section 292 of the Agriculture and Markets Law (AML) which result in unreasonable and unnecessary economic waste with respect to peaches/nectarines and that the declared public policy of such section should be effectuated. Thereupon, the proposed Peach/Nectarine Research and Development Program is submitted to a referendum of the New York State Peach/Nectarine growers pursuant to AML section 294 and section 200.6 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York (1 NYCRR). NOW, therefore

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE OF A REFERENDUM to be conducted pursuant to subdivision (2) of AML section 294 to determine whether peach/nectarine producers approve the proposed Research and Development Program which would be funded by a maximum assessment of $25.00 per acre of peaches/nectarines.

Any person engaged within New York State in the business of producing or causing to be produced peaches/nectarines for any market during the 2004-2005 marketing season (July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2005) is eligible to vote. "Person", in this case, means any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, company, or unincorporated association. Note, however, that if a producer is composed of more than one individual (for example, a partnership or corporation), only one vote may be cast for that producer.

The approval of not less than fifty-one per centum of the producers participating in the referendum vote in the area affected, and having marketed not less than sixty-five per centum of the total quantity of peaches/nectarines marketed in the 2004-2005 marketing season by all producers that vote in the referendum, is required for the adoption of this Program. If approved, the Program provisions will apply to the 2006-2007 marketing season, which begins on July 1, 2006.

Please use the enclosed ballot and pre-addressed envelope to return your vote. Ballots must be received in the Department on or before November 30, 2005. The postmark date will be accepted as the date of receipt for ballots delivered by United States Mail.
