PUBLIC NOTICE

Department of Health

Volunteer Physicians Project of Schenectady (VPP)

VPP is a group of mostly retired Schenectady physicians and nurses who will provide a free clinic to serve the needy in Schenectady County. They will serve patients who have no other appropriate source of medical care due to homelessness, low-wage employment without health benefits, mental illness resulting in avoidance of the formal health care system or for any other financial or social reason that would prevent or discourage an individual from seeking needed medical attention. Under Section 2807c(19) of the Public Health Law, the Commissioner of Health has the authority to award non-competitive grants.
