PUBLIC NOTICE

Department of State
 F-2006-1097

Date of Issuance - March 7, 2007

The New York State Department of State (DOS) is required by Federal regulations to provide timely public notice for the activities described below, which are subject to the consistency provisions of the Federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972, as amended.

The applicant has certified that the proposed activity complies with and will be conducted in a manner consistent with the approved New York State Coastal Management Program. The applicant's consistency certification and accompanying public information and data are available for inspection at the New York State Department of State offices located at 41 State Street in Albany, New York.

In F-2006-1097, Brian Jusas is proposing the installation of 280' of new bulkhead with (2) 30' returns with 280' of rip-rap consisting of 400-700lb. stones immediately in front of the proposed bulkhead, a 15' beach access stair case, a 150' bluff access staircase with a 10' x 10' deck at foot of access stairs, a 70' retaining wall at the 60' elevation on bluff, and backfilling behind the newly constructed bulk head with approximately 175 cubic yards of material. The proposed activity would be undertaken at 5 Fox Point Drive, along the Long Island Sound in the Village of Nissequogue, Suffolk County, New York. In addition, the proposed activity would be undertaken in a State designated Coastal Erosion Hazard Area (CEHA), designated in accordance with Article 34 of the State Environmental Conservation Law and its implementing regulations in 6 NYCRR Part 505. Specifically, the beach, bluff, and nearshore area where the activity is proposed are natural protective features, and the area is a designated "Natural Protective Feature Area" delineated on the official New York State Department of Environmental Conservation Coastal Erosion Hazard Area Map Photo Number 70-981-83, sheet 2 of 5.

Any interested parties and/or agencies desiring to express their views concerning any of the above proposed activities may do so by filing their comments, in writing, no later than 4:30 p.m., 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, or, April 6, 2007.

Comments should be addressed to the Division of Coastal Resources and Waterfront Revitalization, New York State Department of State, 41 State Street, Albany, New York 12231. Telephone (518) 474-6000; Fax (518) 473-2464.

This notice is promulgated in accordance with Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 930.
