PUBLIC NOTICE

Division of Probation and Correctional Alternatives

Consistent with Chapter 862 of the Laws of 1990, the agency named below requested and exemption from initially publishing this contract opportunity in the procurement opportunities newsletter. In accordance with Section 144(2) (e) of the Economic Development Law, the Office of the State Comptroller has granted the exemption.

The NYS Division of Probation and Correctional Alternatives (DPCA) requested an exemption from initially publishing increases in contract values to 28 Alternatives to Incarceration programs in the Procurement Opportunities Newsletter. This request has been approved by the Office of the State Comptroller. DPCA received additional funding from the Legislature in the 2008-09 fiscal year referred to as: Alternatives to Incarceration Demonstration Projects – Supplemental Aid

The SFY 2008-09 Legislative Initiative states that these additional funds shall be allocated proportionally among those entities that received supplemental funding for the purpose of providing programs and services which served as an alternative to incarceration during SFY 2007-08.
